The Wanamaker Store

The GREATEST FURNITURE BUSINESS IN THE WORLD

Built on Original, Masterful Public-Serving Methods

Monday and yesterday saw such furniture selling in our New York and Philadelphia Stores as would have made a big month's business for almost any other furniture store in either city.

It was simply public testimony to past Wanamaker accomplishment.

And yet, there are thousands of people who do not realize the position in the furniture trade held by the Wanamaker Stores. Here are facts:

There is no other retail furniture business in the United States that equals in volume that of either our New York or our Philadelphia Store. In combination, our two stores do a strictly furniture business more than two times as great as the next largest store.

Judge for yourself the position and prestige among furniture manufacturers held by the man who has regular orders to place, two or three times as great as any other buyer in the trade.

Doesn't that explain why a manufacturer will gladly cut the price a third or a half on a quantity of furniture that is only five or ten per cent. of what he sells to us at regular prices? Doesn't it explain why the choicest "plums" of the year's business MUST come to WANAMAKER'S?

Yet there are stores which do less than a tenth of the Wanamaker Furniture business, which claim to have similar August Sales—writing their announcements from old files of Wanamaker advertising, instead of stating the facts about the glued-together "cheap" furniture that is casting discredit on the great August Sale principle amongst the thousands of people who see only imitation sales, and fail to come to WANAMAKER'S.

But, while some are deterred from buying in August by reason of the counterfeit "sales," nothing else could so illustrate Wanamaker superiority as do these August comparisons. The giant's height is emphasized by the dwarfs that parade behind him. It is the scores of imitators that fall at the test, who prove the mastery of Wanamaker success.

What greater proof than yesterday's hundreds of enthusiastic purchasers? If you have time, and furniture knowledge to make comparisons, we hope you will test August Sales for yourself. If you prefer to abide by the decisions of the great public of New York housekeepers, come direct to WANAMAKER'S and see with your own eyes how lively the selling is, and hear the verdicts spoken as customers view the various pieces they are interested in.

The magnificent August collection is at its best during these early days of the sale. Don't delay coming a moment longer than necessary. Remember that the furniture will be delivered later on in the Fall, as you may arrange, if you are not ready to receive it now.
